

REMOTE + ON-SITE WORK PULSE

Keep employees connected, enabled, and feeling safe

Support your remote and on-site workforce through major business disruption and keep teams thriving with a free, automated feedback solution developed by Qualtrics IO psychology experts.

CURRENT STATE

Whether you're suddenly supporting a fully remote workforce, protecting the health and safety of employees with essential on-site roles, or doing both—it's never been more important to check in with your people and respond to their needs.

THE PROBLEM

Major shifts and disruptions in the workplace caused by COVID-19 can lead to critical gaps in the employee experience, with serious implications for employee well-being, productivity, and the long-term business if not addressed quickly.

Organizations need a simple and easy way to get real-time feedback from their workforce, prioritize acute needs, and take swift action to ensure their largest asset is set up for success.

THE SOLUTION

The Remote + On-Site Work Pulse helps HR, IT/operations teams, executive leadership and managers rapidly address entire workforce needs around well-being, safety, resources, and enablement—whether employees are remote, on-site, or on the frontline.
